- 11.2. If any Underlying Security is subject to Corporate Action, we shall, acting reasonably, determine the appropriate adjustment, if any, to be made to the size and/or value and/or number of the affected Transactions. This remains the case whether the affected Transactions are open or have been closed (and/or to the level of any stop or Limit Order attaching to those Transactions), in order to account for the effect of the Corporate Action on those Transactions. The adjustment we make may take the form of a credit or debit payment to your account or an adjustment to your affected Transactions, which may involve us opening new Transactions on your account.

12. Normal Market Size

- 12.1. You may wish to make a Transaction which we consider to be larger than normal market size. We will be entitled to determine what constitutes normal market size. We will do this by reference to the level of trading activity for which prices are available on any relevant market or exchange about which we are reasonably able to obtain price information.
- 12.2. If we accept an offer from you to open or close a Transaction that is larger than normal market size, it may be subject to special conditions and requirements. We will tell you about these at the time you ask to open or close the Transaction with us. In particular, we may quote a revised price for entering into the proposed Transaction. Our quotation for a Transaction larger than normal market size is not guaranteed to be within any specific percentage of any underlying market or related market quotation.

13. Errors

- 13.1. From time to time it is possible that errors may occur in the pricing of contracts. Notwithstanding the rights that you have under Applicable Regulations or law, we reserve the right to void, or to amend the terms of, any Transaction that we reasonably believe, at our sole discretion, to contain or be based on an obvious or palpable error (a Manifest Error). In deciding whether an error is a Manifest Error we may take into account any relevant information including, the state of the underlying market at the time of the error and any error within, or lack of clarity of, any information source or pronouncement. In deciding whether or not there has been a Manifest Error, we will make reasonable efforts to take into account any financial commitments that you have made or refrained from making in reliance on a Transaction.

13.2. In the absence of our fraud, wilful default or negligence, we will not be liable to you for any loss, cost, claim, demand or expense you may suffer (including loss of profits or any indirect or consequential losses) resulting from a Manifest Error or resulting remedial actions.

14. Execution of Orders

14.1. We shall use all reasonable steps to execute any order promptly, but in accepting your order we do not promise that it will be possible to execute the order in accordance with your instructions. If we encounter any material difficulty relevant to the proper execution of an order we shall notify you promptly. We may only execute an order when the relevant underlying market or Exchange is open for dealing.

14.2. You agree that we may execute an order outside a regulated market or multilateral trading facility.

14.3. Where relevant, we will provide you with best execution in accordance with the SCB Regulations

14.4. We have established an order execution policy to enable us to take all reasonable steps to obtain, when executing orders, the best possible result in accordance with SCB Regulations. The main execution factors that we use to determine the best possible result are price and the costs associated with executing the Transaction. Where we pass an order to another broker we check that the broker has a policy and arrangements designed to obtain the best possible result, taking into account the nature of the order and the relevant market. Before agreeing to this Agreement and signing the Application Form, you confirm that you have read and agree to our Summary Order Execution Policy, which is available on our Website. If you have any questions about our Summary Order Execution Policy, please contact us using the contact details on our website.

14.5. We will monitor the quality of the execution received and will regularly monitor and review our Summary Order Execution Policy. Any material changes that we make to our Summary Order Execution Policy will be published on our Website.

14.6. When you give us a specific instruction such as a Limit Order, some or all of our Summary Order Execution Policy may not apply to the Transaction concerned.

14.7. You agree that we will not make public Limit Orders in shares that are not immediately executed under prevailing market conditions.

14.8. You will promptly deliver any instructions, money, documents or property required to be delivered by you under a Transaction in accordance with the terms of that Transaction (as amended by any instructions given by us) so that we can perform our obligations under the relevant matching Transaction on an Exchange or with an intermediate broker.

14.9. We may, at our reasonable discretion, arrange for any Transaction to be made with or through the agency of an intermediate broker, who may be an Associate of ours. You will be responsible for any intermediate brokers or agents selected by you.

14.10. You expressly acknowledge that it is your responsibility to understand how an order operates before you place any such orders with us and that you will not place an order unless you fully understand the terms and conditions attached to such order.

15. Rollover and Swaps

15.1. CFD positions that remain open from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) may be subject to rollover. All positions which are opened or closed from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) may be subject to rollover. Positions will be rolled over by debiting or crediting your account with an amount calculated using interest rate differentials between currencies and/or the swap rates applied by our liquidity providers. Daily swap rates are not fixed and can be changed by us, without prior notice, in line with prevailing market conditions. It is your responsibility to check our website and our trading platforms, especially the information on contract specification and contract details, for instruments you are trading, to ensure you are aware of any changes made to daily swap rates. In case of any discrepancy between the information displayed on our website and within our trading platforms, the information within the trading platforms shall prevail.

16. Client Money

- 16.1. Money held by us on your behalf will be treated as client money within the meaning of the Client Money Rules. Your money will be held in a segregated client account at our custodian bank.
- 16.2. We may pass money received from you to a third party (e.g. a market, intermediate broker, OTC counterparty or clearing house to hold or control in order to make a Transaction through or with that person or to satisfy your obligation to provide a deposit (such as an initial requirement that you provide Margin) in respect of a Transaction. Although we will remain responsible for money received from you even if we pass it to a third party, you may be exposed to the additional risk that, in the event of an insolvency or similar in relation to that third party, the amount of money received by us from the third party may not be sufficient to satisfy your claims. However, you may still be able to claim against us for any outstanding amounts.
- 16.3. We may hold client money on your behalf outside the Bahamas. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any bank or person that holds your money outside the Bahamas will be different from that of the Bahamas. As a result, should that bank go into insolvency or similar proceedings, your money may be treated differently than it would have been if the money was held with a bank in the Bahamas. We will not be liable for the insolvency, acts or omissions of any third party referred to in this sub-clause.
- 16.4. In the event that funds need to be transferred between ActivTrades PLC (London parent entity) and ActivTrades Corp (Bahamas subsidiary) you give us the permission to do so. This will also apply to any current account(s) that you may have with ActivTrades PLC (London). The transfer will only take place from ActivTrades PLC to ActivTrades Corp and not the vice versa. Funds will only be transferred when necessary. We understand that the data being sent is sensitive, and will only be shared between ActivTrades PLC and ActivTrades Corp and is protected under the Data Protection Laws of both jurisdictions and allows us to comply with Anti-Money Laundering Regulations.
- 16.5. To avoid doubt, we will not pay interest on any amounts in your account, unless we have agreed to do so in writing. Unless we have agreed otherwise in writing, on signing this Agreement, you consent to the fact that no interest will be paid to you on any amounts in your account(s) and that we will retain any such interest.
- 16.6. You agree that, in the event that there has been no movement on your account balance for a period of at least six years (not with standing any payments or receipts of charges or similar items) and we are unable to trace you and return your account balance to you, despite having taken all reasonable steps to do so, we may cease to treat your money as client money and accordingly release any client money balances from the segregated client account pursuant to any local regulatory protocols applicable to 'dormant accounts'.
- 16.7. If your trading account remains unused for at least one year, you will be treated as a dormant customer. This will attract an administration fee of £10 in the currency of your account per calendar month to cover our costs of maintaining the dormant account. We reserve the right to amend such fees. You will be informed of any such changes. Note that the administration fee cannot reduce the balance of your account(s) below zero.

17. Currency

- 17.1. We shall be entitled, without giving notice to you first, to make any currency conversions we consider reasonably necessary or desirable for the purposes of complying with our obligations or exercising our rights under this Agreement or any Transaction. Any currency conversion shall be made by us in the manner and at the rates we determine to be appropriate, having due regard to the current exchange rates for the relevant currencies.
- 17.2. Where it is necessary to make a currency conversion, you will bear all foreign currency exchange risk arising from any contract or from the compliance by us with our obligations or the exercise by us of our rights under this Agreement.

17.3. If you trade in contracts for difference, for any Transaction denominated in a currency other than a Base Currency, we will automatically convert the total sum of the Transaction into the Base Currency applicable to your account at the time of the Transaction. The exchange rate for all types of currency conversion will be one that we determine to be appropriate, having due regard to the current exchange rates for the relevant currencies. These details are available on the corporate web site. Exchange rates fluctuate and may change between the time that the indicative exchange rate is quoted and the time that the amounts are converted. Where applicable the confirmation of the conversion will show the exchange rate used.

18. Confirmations and Periodic Statements

18.1. To the extent required under SIA, we will send you daily confirmations in respect of each Transaction. Such confirmations may be sent electronically and it is your responsibility to inform us if you have not received a daily confirmation in respect of a Transaction which you expected to receive from us. We will send you a monthly statement or notification of the statement being available in the "Personal Area" of our Website in respect of each of your accounts within 10 Business Days of the end of each calendar month.

18.2. Unless we receive written notice of a potential error from you within two Business Days of delivery of a confirmation to you or we notify you of an error in the confirmation, we shall be entitled to conclude that the confirmation is conclusive and accepted by you.

19. Margin

19.1. Where we have successfully completed our Appropriateness Assessment and we agree to enter into a Transaction involving an option, future, contract for difference or a spread bet we will require you to provide and maintain the amount of Margin in your account that we consider appropriate. You should note that, depending on the nature of the Transaction, you may have to make additional payments of Margin if the Transaction fails to be completed or if the settlement or closing out of your position takes place early. The movement in the market price of your investment will affect the amount of Margin payment you will be required to make. We will monitor your Margin requirements on a daily basis and we will inform you as soon as it is reasonably practicable of the amount of any Margin payment required under this clause

19.2. When requested by us, you agree to provide us with payments of Margin that we reasonably require to protect ourselves against loss or risk of loss on present, future or contemplated Transactions under this Agreement. Different Margin requirements may apply to different accounts and/or investments traded. You may be required to add to this Margin at any time when your account shows a negative balance or an increase in your Margin requirement and we will normally inform you one Business Day beforehand if we require you to pay additional Margin. You will pay or transfer Margin within the minimum period specified by us (which will normally be at least one Business Day but in exceptional circumstances, may be required to be within the same day). However, in certain circumstances, there may be times when either we will be required to settle or close out your position early and we may not be able to provide you with notice of this before it happens. However, we will only do this where it is reasonable for us to do so (for example, where there is a negative balance on your account or there is a risk of your account showing a negative balance).

19.3. Margin will be provided in cash. We may in our discretion allow you to provide Margin in the form of certain types of investments or other assets (if any) that we agree from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 1 of this Agreement and on such other terms that we agree in a separate written agreement.

19.4. If we do allow you to provide non cash Margin, unless the terms applying to a particular type of Transaction specify otherwise, the Margin that you provide will be valued by us on the basis that we reasonably determine to be appropriate. This valuation may reflect, amongst other things, our view as to the level of availability of the assets provided as Margin or the discount to the current market value of the Margin that we consider reflects its market risk.

19.5. We will be entitled to close out or liquidate some or all of your positions if you fail to pay Margin when required or if the Margin in your account falls below the minimum amount required and your account is at risk of showing a negative balance. However, we are under no obligation to close out or liquidate any Transactions or take any other action in respect of positions opened or acquired on your instruction if you fail to pay Margin when required. For the avoidance of doubt it is your responsibility to maintain an appropriate amount of Margin on your account at all times.

19.6. All cash Margin and other payments due from you under this Agreement shall be made in freely transferable funds in the currency and to the bank account(s) that we may from time to time specify.

19.7. If you are providing Margin in cash, please refer to clause 16. If we allow you to provide non-cash Margin, as referred to in sub-clause 19.3, we will be entitled to realise the value of such assets, in circumstances as described in the separate written agreement.

20. Margin in Relation to Contracts for Difference

20.1. If you trade contracts for difference the provisions in this clause 20 will apply in addition to those in clause 19.

20.2. When you open an account to trade contracts for difference we will set a level of Margin for your account. You agree that we may close out your position automatically if your Margin falls below a pre-agreed percentage of that level of Margin.

20.3. You must maintain a Margin to cover your position on intra-day trading (the Intra-day Margin) and, if you hold a position overnight, you must hold an overnight Margin (the Overnight Margin).

20.4. The Intra-day Margin that we set for your account will, in most cases, be lower than the amount that we set for your Overnight Margin. If you wish to hold a position overnight you will need to ensure that you have sufficient funds in your account to meet the higher Overnight Margin amount. You agree that if you hold a position overnight you will ensure that you have sufficient funds in your account to cover your Overnight Margin. This obligation applies to each account that you open with us.

20.5. At the close of business each day we will check any open positions held by you against the agreed Overnight Margin. You agree that if the amount held in your account is insufficient to meet your Overnight Margin we may close your open position without reference to you.

21. Your Warranties

21.1. Representations and warranties are personal statements, assurances or undertakings given by you to us on which we rely when we deal with you. You make the following representations and warranties at the time you enter into this Agreement, and you will also be deemed to make them before every Transaction or any time you give us any other instruction:

21.1.1. if you are an individual, you are over 18 years old and you have full capacity to enter into this Agreement;

21.1.2. you have all necessary authority, powers, consents, licences and authorisations and have taken all necessary action to enable you lawfully to enter into and perform this Agreement and such Transaction and to grant the security interests and powers referred to in this Agreement;

21.1.3. the persons entering into this Agreement and each Transaction on your behalf have been duly authorised to do so;

21.1.4. this Agreement, each Transaction and the obligations created under them both are binding upon you and enforceable against you in accordance with their terms (subject to applicable principles of law) and do not and will not violate the terms of any regulation, order, charge or agreement by which you are bound;

21.1.5. no Event of Default or Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing with respect to you;

21.1.6. you are acting on your own behalf (unless we have agreed otherwise in writing) and not as trustee in entering into this Agreement and each Transaction;

21.1.7. any information which you provide or have provided to us in respect of your financial position, domicile or other matters is accurate and not misleading in any material respect;

21.1.8. you are willing and financially able to sustain a total loss of funds resulting from a Transaction; and

21.1.9. except as otherwise agreed by us, you are the sole beneficial owner of all Margin you transfer under this Agreement, free and clear of any security interest whatsoever other than a right to withhold or dispose of assets routinely imposed on all securities in a clearing system in which such securities may be held.

21.2. You promise that:

- 21.2.1. you will at all times obtain and comply, and do all that is necessary to maintain in full force and effect, all authority, powers, consents, licences and authorisations referred to in this clause;
- 21.2.2. you will promptly notify us of the occurrence of any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default with respect to yourself;
- 21.2.3. you will take all reasonable steps to comply with all Applicable Regulations in relation to this Agreement and any Transaction, so far as they are applicable to you or us;
- 21.2.4. you will not send orders or take any action that could create a false impression of the demand for or value of a financial instrument, or send orders which you have reason to believe are in breach of Applicable Regulations. You shall observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of persons in your position and not take any step which would cause us to fail to observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of persons in our position; and
- 21.2.5. upon demand, you will provide us with any information that we may reasonably require as evidence of your compliance with the matters referred to in this clause or any Applicable Regulations.

22. Netting

- 22.1. If an Event of Default occurs at any time (other than a Bankruptcy Default), then we may exercise our rights under subclause 22.4. If a Bankruptcy Default occurs at any time, the provisions of clause 22.3 shall apply.
- 22.2. Subject to clause 22.3, at any time after an Event of Default occurs, we may provide you with notice of a day (the Liquidation Date) for the termination and liquidation of Transactions in accordance with the provisions of this clause.
- 22.3. Unless we tell you otherwise, the date on which any Bankruptcy Default occurs shall automatically be the Liquidation Date (Automatic Termination), without the need for us to provide you with any notice and the provisions of clause 22.4 shall apply.
- 22.4. On a Liquidation Date:
 - 22.4.1. neither you nor us shall be obliged to make any further payments or deliveries under any Transaction which would, if not for this clause, have become due for performance on or after the Liquidation Date and these obligations shall be satisfied by settlement (whether by payment, set-off or otherwise) of the Liquidation Amount (as defined below in sub-clause 22.4.3);
 - 22.4.2. we shall (on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Liquidation Date) determine for each Transaction referred to in sub-clause 22.4.1 above, the total cost, loss or gain as a result of the termination under this Agreement of each payment or delivery that would otherwise have been required to be made under each Transaction. Sums determined under this sub-clause will be expressed in the currency that we specify in writing to you or, if we do not specify a currency, the Base Currency applicable to your account; and
 - 22.4.3. we shall treat each cost or loss to us as a positive amount and each gain by us as a negative amount and combine all of these amounts to produce a single, net positive or negative amount, expressed in the Base Currency applicable to your account (Liquidation Amount).
- 22.5. If the Liquidation Amount is a positive amount, you shall pay it to us and if it is a negative amount, we shall pay it to you. We shall notify you of the Liquidation Amount, and by whom it is payable, immediately after the calculation of this amount.
- 22.6. On the Liquidation Date, we shall also be entitled, at our reasonable discretion, to terminate and liquidate any other Transactions entered into between us that remain unsettled, in accordance with clause 22.4.
- 22.7. The Liquidation Amount shall be paid in the Base Currency applicable to your account by the close of business on the Business Day following the notification of the Liquidation Amount (converted as required by Applicable Regulations into any other currency, any costs of such conversion to be borne by you, and (if applicable) deducted from any payment to you). Any Liquidation Amount not paid on the due date shall be treated as an unpaid amount and bear interest at the rate reasonably determined by us to be the cost of funding that unpaid amount. Interest will accrue on a daily basis and will be due and payable by you as a separate debt.

- 22.8. For the purposes of any calculation under this clause 22, we may convert amounts denominated in any other currency into the Base Currency applicable to your account at the current rate at the time of the calculation that we reasonably select.
- 22.9. Unless a Liquidation Date has occurred or has been effectively set, we shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery scheduled to be made by us under a Transaction for as long as an Event of Default or a Potential Event of Default with respect to you has occurred and is continuing.
- 22.10. Our rights under this clause shall be in addition to, and will not act to limit or exclude, any other rights which we may have (whether by agreement, operation of law or otherwise).
- 22.11. This clause applies to each Transaction entered into or remaining unsettled between us on or after the date this Agreement takes effect.
- 22.12. Subject to clause 22.6, the provisions of this clause shall not apply to any Transaction which is subject to liquidation and termination under another agreement. However, any sum resulting from a liquidation and termination under another agreement may be set off against the Liquidation Amount.
- 22.13. Unless otherwise agreed in writing between us, or the rules of any relevant Exchange provide otherwise, if we enter into any Transaction with you in order to close out any existing Transaction between us then our respective obligations under both such Transactions shall automatically and immediately be terminated upon entering into the second Transaction, except for any settlement payment due from one of us to the other in respect of such close-out.

23. Charges and Taxes

- 23.1. You agree to pay us any fees on any Transaction carried out for you under this Agreement as expressly agreed between you and us.
- 23.2. You must also pay any applicable VAT, stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, and any other taxes, levies or Transaction costs.
- 23.3. Please note that there is the possibility that other taxes or costs may exist that are not paid through us or imposed by us. You will at all times be fully responsible for payment of all other taxes due, for making all claims, for filing any tax returns and for providing any relevant tax authorities with information in relation to the services we carry out for you or your money and investments.
- 23.4. We do not usually charge a fee for contracts for difference. We may charge fees for trading in futures. All fees will be set out in writing and agreed with you in advance, before you sign this Agreement.
- 23.5. We may share charges with our Associates and other third parties or receive and retain payment from them in respect of Transactions carried out on your behalf. Details of any such payments or sharing arrangements will be made available to you in writing before any such payments or sharing arrangements are made.
- 23.6. If you are required by law to deduct or withhold any sum for tax or other reasons, the amount owed to us will be increased, so that after you make such a tax deduction or withholding, we receive the same amount as if no such deduction or withholding had been made.
- 23.7. We may impose certain reasonable additional charges as set out from time to time in writing to you, which you shall have to pay in the event that you do not comply with your obligations under this Agreement. These additional charges may include, without limitation, any reasonable legal costs we may incur as a result of your failure to comply with this Agreement. There are no additional charges payable by you by virtue of the fact that this Agreement is entered into via email, telephone or fax or other distance means.
- 23.8. We may pass onto you certain third party charges incurred by us, for example, credit card fees. The charges are set out on our Website. If you have any questions about these charges, please contact us using the contact details on our website.
- 23.9. We shall not provide any advice to you on any tax issues related to any services and/or products. You are hereby advised to source independent advice in relation to any tax matters.

24. Conflicts of Interest and Material Interests

Please refer to our conflicts of interest policy, available on our Website or in hard copy on request, for further information on how we manage conflicts which would affect the impartiality of the services we provide to you. If you have any questions on our conflicts of interest policy, please contact us using the contact details on our website. before agreeing to this Agreement.

25.2. Subject to and without limiting the effect of clause 25.1, we are only responsible for losses you suffer as a result of us breaking this Agreement if the losses are a foreseeable consequence of us breaking this Agreement. Losses are foreseeable where they could be contemplated by you and us at the time this Agreement was entered into. We are not responsible for indirect losses which happen as a side effect of the main loss or damage and which are not foreseeable by you and us (such as loss of profits or loss of opportunity).

25.3. You will pay us for any losses we may incur if you fail to perform any of your obligations under this Agreement or a Transaction, or from your use of the Online Facility.

26. Variation

26.1. We may vary this Agreement at any time by giving you written notification of the changes. We will only make changes for the following reasons:

26.1.1. to make the terms clearer or more favourable to you;

26.1.2. reflecting legitimate changes in the cost of providing the service to you;

26.1.3. reflecting a change in the Applicable Regulations or any other applicable law, regulation or codes of practice or decisions by a court, ombudsman, regulator or similar body;

26.1.4. reflecting changes in market conditions;

26.3. If you object to any change you must tell us within 10 business days of the date the notice is deemed to have been received by you under clause 31 (Notices). If you do not do so, you will be deemed to have accepted the change(s). If you give us notice that you object, then the changes will not be binding on you, but we may close your account as soon as reasonably practicable and/or restrict your activity to Transactions which will close out your open positions.

27. Default and Termination

27.1. If an Event of Default occurs or if we reasonably believe that you will not be able or willing in the future to perform any of your obligations to us, we shall be entitled without first giving you notice:

- 27.1.1. to pay you the fair market value of the investments credited to your account at the time of this payment, instead of returning to you, investments equivalent to those investments;
 - 27.1.2. to sell those of your investments that are in our possession or in the possession of any nominee or third party appointed under or in accordance with this Agreement, in each case as we may in our reasonable discretion select or and upon the terms that we reasonably think fit (without being responsible for any loss or reduction in price) in order to provide us with sufficient funds to cover any amount owed by you under this Agreement;
 - 27.1.3. to close out, replace or reverse any Transaction, buy, sell, borrow or lend or enter into any other Transaction or take, or refrain from taking, any other action at any time or times and in the manner that we, at our reasonable discretion, consider necessary or appropriate to cover, reduce or remove our loss or liability under or in relation to any of your contracts, positions or commitments; and/or
 - 27.1.4. to treat any or all Transactions that have not been settled between us as having been repudiated by you, meaning that our obligations under the Transaction(s) are immediately cancelled and terminated.

- 27.6. The termination of this Agreement will not affect any rights which may already have arisen or obligation which may already have been incurred by either of us under this Agreement.

31.2. Any such notice will be considered to have been served:

31.2.1. if delivered by hand, at the time of delivery;

31.2.2. if sent by prepaid recorded delivery or registered post, two clear Business Days after the date of posting (i.e. not including the day of posting itself); and

31.2.3. if sent by registered airmail, five clear Business Days from the date of posting (i.e. not including the day of posting itself);

31.2.4. if sent by fax, at the completion of transmission during business hours at its destination or, if not within business hours, at the opening of the next period of business hours, but subject to:

31.2.4.1. proof by the sender that it holds a printed transmission report confirming despatch of the transmitted notice;

31.2.4.2. the sender not receiving any telephone calls from the recipient, to be confirmed in writing, that the fax has not been received in a legible form; and

31.2.4.3. despatch of the notice by post in accordance with clause 31.13 on the same day as its transmission; and

31.2.5. if sent by e-mail, one hour after sending during business hours at its destination or, if not within business hours, at the opening of the next period of business hours, but subject to no "not sent" or "not received" message being received from the relevant e-mail providers.

31.4. E-mail may be used to enable us to communicate with you. As with any other means of delivery this carries with it the risk of inadvertent misdirection or non-delivery. It is your responsibility to carry out a virus check on any attachments received. As internet communications are capable of data corruption we do not accept any responsibility for changes made to such communications after their dispatch. For this reason it may be inappropriate to rely on the content of an e-mail without obtaining written confirmation of it. All risks connected with sending confidential information relating to you are borne by you and are not our responsibility. If you do not accept this risk, you should notify us in writing that e-mail is not an acceptable means of communication.

32. General

32.1. By agreeing to this Agreement, you consent that the Company may engage its Affiliates and Associates for the purposes of providing you with general customer support and servicing.

32.2. The granting by you or us of any time or concession in respect of any breach of this Agreement by the other will not be considered to be a waiver of that breach.

32.3. This Agreement comprises the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and each of the parties acknowledges that it has not entered into this Agreement relying on any representation, statement or agreement, whether oral or in writing, other than those expressly incorporated in this Agreement.

32.4. Set-off: in addition to any other right to withhold payment, we may at any time and without notice to you, set off any amounts owing between you and us. If we exercise the right of set-off and it shows that the amounts due to us exceed the amounts due to you, we will give you notice of this and you shall immediately pay such excess to us. For the purposes of set-off any amounts due or available within joint accounts held with other person(s) will be the responsibility of each of the joint accounts holders in equal part.

32.5. If, at any time, any provision of this Agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under the law of any jurisdiction, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provision under the law of any other jurisdiction shall in any way be affected.

32.6. Governing law and jurisdiction: This Agreement, and any non-contractual obligations connected with them, are governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and you and we submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of The Bahamian Courts.

32.7. ActivTrades Corp is a subsidiary of ActivTrades Plc. If you choose to fund your account using a credit or debit card, ActivTrades PLC will be responsible for the processing of the payment.

33. Negative Protection

33.1. Our trading facilities are designed to prevent you from incurring a negative balance when trading under normal market conditions. However, it may still be possible to incur a negative balance whilst trading and therefore we will reimburse the negative balance on your account. For the purposes of this clause 33, any reference to 'account' shall mean 'customer' and not any particular trading account(s) you may have with ActivTrades. Thus, the negative balance protection applies to the aggregate of all trading accounts you may hold with us from time to time. The provisions of this clause shall not apply where we determine at our sole discretion, that:

33.1.1. the negative balance is unrelated to the trading activity. For example, where the negative balance relates to any fees or charges owed to us;

33.1.2. the negative balance is connected to or a result of a breach of any provision within these Terms;

33.1.3. we are able to set-off any amounts owing between you and us under clause 32.4 of these Terms;

33.1.4. you are excluded from this protection and we have notified you of such exclusion prior to you incurring the negative balance;

33.1.5. you have traded recklessly as a result of placing over reliance on our negative balance protection facility;

33.1.6. you have abused or intend to abuse our negative balance protection facility; and 33.1.7. an event described in clause 25 (except 25.1.2) of these Terms has arisen.

33.2. Even where the reimbursement of a negative balance has been made or is due to be made on your account, we may revoke or reverse the reimbursement where, at our sole discretion, we subsequently determine that any of the provisions of clauses 33.1.1 to 33.1.7 were or are likely to be satisfied.

33.3. Negative Balance Protection is not meant to incentivise excessive risk taking or encourage moral hazard. In all cases where we have reasonable grounds to believe that a disproportionate position has been opened, taking advantage of the negative balance protection, especially in instances where there is the likelihood of an event which has the potential to generate a sharp market gap (for example, but not limited to, the closure of a trading session for hours or days), we reserve the right to liquidate the position in a timely manner and at the best market price (which can be the last price, in cases where the trading session has just ended), in order to mitigate the future risk of incurring a negative balance.

34. FATCA and CRS

34.1. For the purpose of complying with FATCA and CRS we may collect, store and process information obtained from you. Additionally, we may disclose the information including transactions to Governmental Authorities.

34.2. You shall promptly provide us with any additional information which might be required to meet the Company's regulatory obligations in relation to FATCA and CRS and other Applicable Regulations.

35. Force Majeure Events

35.1. We may, in our reasonable opinion, determine that an emergency or an extraordinary event or market condition/response exists (a "Force Majeure Event"). A Force Majeure Event will include, but is not limited to, the following:

- 35.1.1. any act, event or occurrence (including without limitation any natural disaster, strike, riot or civil unrest, major act of terrorism, war, industrial action, major epidemic or pandemic disease, acts and regulations of any governmental or supra national bodies or authorities) that, in our opinion, prevents us from maintaining an orderly market in one or more of the instruments that we ordinarily offer on the Online Facility.
 - 35.1.2. the suspension or closure of any market or the nationalization, government sequestration, abandonment or failure of any instrument on which we base, or to which we in any way relate, our quote; or the imposition of limits or special or unusual terms on the trading in any such market or on any such event, such as the pegging/unpegging of a currency or government intervention, for example, the USA Government ban on the hoarding of gold in 1933;
 - 35.1.3. the occurrence of an excessive movement in the level of any Transaction and/or the Underlying Market or our anticipation (acting reasonably) of the occurrence of such a movement;
 - 35.1.4. any breakdown or failure of transmission, communication or computer facilities, interruption of power supply, or electronic or communications equipment failure which has been provided to us by contracted/sub-contracted partners, for example, an orchestrated attack (such as a cyber-attack) on global network providers, causing network saturation and unavailability of cloud or on-premise services; or
 - 35.1.5. failure of any relevant supplier, agent or principal of ours, custodian, sub-custodian, dealer, exchange, clearing house or regulatory or self-regulatory organisation, for any reason, to perform its obligations.
- 35.2. If we determine that a Force Majeure Event exists, we may, at our absolute discretion, without notice immediately and at any time, take one or more of the following steps:
- 35.2.1. increase or alter Margin requirements;
 - 35.2.2. close all or any of your open positions at such a closing level as we reasonably believe to be appropriate (and which may be at the closing price on the day before the Force Majeure Event i.e. before the event in question occurred or at the opening price for positions opened on the same day);
 - 35.2.3. suspend or modify the application of any of the Terms of this Client Agreement to the extent that the Force Majeure Event makes it impossible or impracticable for us to comply with the Term or Terms in question;
 - 35.2.4. alter the trading hours for a particular instrument and/or terminate it with immediate effect.

SCHEDULE 1
INFORMATION NOTICE

This Notice is provided by ActivTrades Corp ('the Company'), registered in The Commonwealth of The Bahamas with number 199667 B, whose Registered Office is at 209 & 210 Church Street, Sandport, P.O. Box SP 64388, Nassau, Bahamas (we) to you in compliance with the Securities Industry Regulations, 2012 (SIR) and the Securities Commission of The Bahamas' Guidelines (SCB Guidelines)

All words and expressions defined in our Client Agreement shall, unless the context requires otherwise, have the same meaning in this Notice.

The following statements are intended to make you aware of and disclose to you the nature and risk of certain investment types and trading strategies and potential for risk and loss that will arise in respect of trading on the financial markets.

This Notice cannot disclose all the risks and other significant aspects of contracts for difference, or the different trading strategies. Before undertaking any trading you must familiarise yourself with the product that you propose to trade and the way in which the market operates. Please ensure that you read all the information on our Website that is relevant to the trading that you propose to undertake with us. You should not deal in our products unless you understand their nature and the extent of your exposure to risk. You should also be satisfied that the product is suitable for you in the light of your circumstances and financial position. Certain strategies, such as a "spread" position or a "straddle", may be as risky as a simple "long" or "short" position.

Although Contracts for Difference can be utilised for the management of investment risk, some of these products are unsuitable for many investors. Different instruments involve different levels of exposure to risk and in deciding whether to trade in such instruments you should be aware of the following points:

Contracts for Difference are complex financial contracts, the value of which is determined by an underlying asset or thing (for example, futures and options contracts, indices as well as currency and interest rate swaps). However many of these contracts can only be settled in cash. Investing in a Contract for Difference carries the same risks as investing in a future or an option and you should be aware of these. Transactions in Contracts for Difference may also have a contingent liability and you should be aware of the implications of this..

These transactions are not carried out on a recognised or designated exchange and this may mean a higher level of risk is incurred by the investor. The structure and the price are established solely by us. This means, for example, that if you wish to close the trade earlier than at the time at which it would otherwise automatically expire, you will have to close it at our quotation, which may reflect a premium or discount to the underlying market. When the underlying market is closed, our quotation can be influenced by the weight of other clients buying or selling. Trades entered into with us can only be closed with us.

2 Commissions

Before you begin to trade, you should obtain details of all commissions and other charges for which you will be liable. If any charges are not expressed in money terms (but, for example, as a percentage of contract value), you should obtain a clear and written explanation, including appropriate examples, to establish what such charges are likely to mean in specific money terms. In the case of futures, when commission is charged as a percentage, it will normally be a percentage of the total contract value, and not simply as a percentage of your initial payment

3 Suspensions of trading

Under certain trading conditions it may be difficult or impossible to liquidate a position. This may occur, for example, at times of rapid price movement if the price rises or falls in one trading session to such an extent that under the rules of the relevant exchange trading is suspended or restricted. Placing a stop-loss order will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such an order at the stipulated price

4 Insolvency

Our insolvency or default, or that of any other brokers involved with your transaction, may lead to positions being liquidated or closed out without your consent. In certain circumstances, you may not get back the actual assets which you lodged as collateral and you may have to accept any available payments in cash. On request, we must provide an explanation of the extent to which it will accept liability for any insolvency of, or default by, other firms involved with your transactions

5 Past performance

You should be aware that the price of the financial instruments that you are dealing with depends on fluctuations in the financial markets outside of our control and that past performance is no indicator of future performance

6 Listed securities where gearing is involved

In relation to listed securities where gearing is involved, the gearing strategy used by the issuer may result in movements in the price of the securities being more volatile than the movements in the price of the underlying investments. Your investment may be subject to sudden and large falls in value and you may get back nothing at all if there is a sufficiently large fall in your investment

We intend to rely on this Information Notice. For your own benefit and protection, you should read this Information Notice carefully. If you do not understand any point, please ask for further information or seek independent legal or financial advice.
